

Women's Bar Association of Maryland Capturing History

Women have reported to being subjected to overt and subtle gender bias and discrimination over the years. The WBA wants to capture these stories to educate others and to learn effective techniques in battling gender bias and discrimination. We are looking for current stories and events that have occurred in the past. Therefore, we are seeking your stories of incidents of gender bias and/or discrimination. You can request that your name remain anonymous in any reporting of the story, but please provide your information below so that we can contact you if we need further clarification of the event.

Would you like your identifying information to be reported as Anonymous? Yes No
