JOB ANNOUNCEMENT
Assistant Attorney General
Health Occupations Prosecution and Litigation Division

Posting Date:	October 1, 2021	Closing Date:	October 15, 2021
Job Title:	Assistant Attorney General	Position Type:	Regular Full time
Location:	Office of the Attorney General, Health Occupations Prosecution & Litigation Division 300 W. Preston St., Suite 201, Baltimore, MD

Description: The Office of the Attorney General is seeking applicants to serve as an Assistant Attorney General in the Health Occupations Prosecution and Litigation Division. The Assistant Attorney General will primarily be prosecuting licensing cases before the Maryland Board of Physicians and other health occupations licensing boards. The Assistant Attorney General will serve as an administrative prosecutor of disciplinary cases against health care professionals involving allegations of fraud, over-prescription of controlled dangerous substances, substance abuse, standard-of-care violations, incompetence and unprofessional conduct. The Assistant Attorney General works closely with the Board's investigatory staff, drafts charging documents, litigates cases before the Office of Administrative Hearings and makes presentations before the Board of Physicians.

Experience: The ideal candidate will have at least five years of experience, excellent research and writing skills, and experience with government law, administrative law, and litigation. Admission to the Maryland Bar is required. The ability to handle independently all phases of litigation is highly desirable. A background in health law or malpractice experience is helpful.

Submission: Interested persons should send a cover letter, resume, writing sample and list of three references via email to rosalind.spellman@maryland.gov or via regular mail to Nicholas Johansson, Principal Counsel, Office of the Attorney General, Health Occupations Prosecution and Litigation Division, 300 West Preston Street, Suite 201, Baltimore, MD 21201 by the close of business on Friday, October 15, 2021.

The Office of the Attorney General is an equal opportunity employer that encourages all interested persons to apply regardless of race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, age, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, pregnancy, or genetic information. The Office is committed to recruiting, retaining, and promoting individuals who have historically been underrepresented in the practice of law.
