Closing Date: November 25, 2020

Job Title: Assistant Attorney General, Senior Counsel

Position Type: Regular Full Time

Location: Maryland Transit Administration, 6 St. Paul Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202

Description: The Office of the Attorney General is seeking applicants for an Assistant Attorney General, Senior Counsel to represent the Maryland Transit Administration (MTA). MTA is a multi-modal transit system, operating Local and Commuter Buses, Light Rail, Metro-Subway, Maryland Regional Commuter (MARC) Train Service and a comprehensive Paratransit (mobility) system. It owns several freight railroad right of ways and has agreements with several freight carriers operating over those right of ways. The MTA attorneys handle a variety of matters, including procurements, contract disputes, personnel and police actions, torts, real estate, environmental law, and rail. This position serves as lead attorney on complex commercial and real estate transactions in which the Department is involved. The Attorney will confer with other transactional attorneys on the substance and strategy of their work while handling his or her own docket of advice and transactional work.

Experience: The ideal candidate will have a minimum of seven years of legal experience in handling commercial and real property transactions, including, but not limited to, a strong understanding of: property acquisitions and dispositions, mitigation and allocation of risk, the processes needed to identify and mitigate environmental conditions, use of ground leases, easements, construction documents and other documents to facilitate and manage the development/design-build processes and the various vehicles used to finance and re-finance real estate and development projects. Experience in transportation law, construction law (including construction claims), government procurement, grants, and sophisticated financial transactions involving land use agreements, public-private-partnerships, and planning and development is a plus. Applicants must have excellent written and verbal communication skills and strong organizational and interpersonal skills. Maryland Bar required.

Submission: Interested persons should submit their resumes and writing samples to: Julie T. Sweeney, Principal Counsel, Maryland Transit Administration, 6 St. Paul St., Ste 1200, Baltimore, MD 21202, or by email jsweeney@mta.maryland.gov by the close of business on Wednesday, November 25, 2020.
